

Celebrate National AccessAbility Week with MPower: Manitoba's Accessibility Challenge

National AccessAbility Week (NAAW) is held annually at the end of May to celebrate the contributions of Canadians with disabilities. It's also an opportunity to recognize the efforts of Canadians who are actively removing barriers and ensuring persons with disabilities have an equal chance to participate in all aspects of Canadian society. Manitoba Possible wants your help celebrating National AccessAbility Week! We're inviting you to participate in MPower: Manitoba's Accessibility Challenge. Enter MPower and earn a chance to win money for your school!

Here's how to enter

Using the format of your choice (drawing, diorama, essay, power point, video, model, etc.) demonstrate your knowledge of accessibility and ideas on how to improve it for everyone.

Focus on the following:

- What does accessibility mean to you?
- What are barriers to accessibility?
- What accessibility barriers exist now at your school or in your community?
- What improvements can be made to make your school or community more accessible and inclusive?
- How will your project increase access and inclusion for all students?

Complete the attached form and send it with your entry to mpower@manitobapossible.ca.

MPower awards prizes to be used by your school for accessibility products and/or upgrades!!

- 10 entries will be awarded $250 participation prizes!!
- 5 entries will be awarded $2000 grand prizes!!
- Student and school recognition during NAAW
